COURSE OUTLINE

Course information
- Welcome to CSS Basics
- Course outline, grading and certificate
- Course practical information
- Course tools

Module 1: Getting started with CSS
1.1 Introduction to Module 1
1.2 What is CSS?
1.3 Why CSS is important
1.4 Project 1 - Your first CSS
1.5 Conclusion and exercises

Module 2: Building CSS rules
2.1 Introduction to Module 2
2.2 HTML review
2.3 Building a CSS rule
2.4 Attaching CSS to HTML using selectors
2.5 Applying styles using CSS properties
2.6 Style studies
2.7 Project 2 - About me page
2.8 Conclusion and exercises

Module 3: Specific HTML targeting with CSS selectors
3.1 Introduction to Module 3
3.2 Using HTML classes and IDs
3.3 CSS pseudo-classes
3.4 Combining selectors
3.5 Style studies
3.6 Project 3 - My profile
3.7 Conclusion and exercises

Module 4: Layout and positioning
4.1 Introduction to Module 4
4.2 The basics of layout
4.3 Floating elements
4.4 Relative positioning
4.5 Style studies
4.6 Project 4 - My resume
4.7 Conclusion and exercises

Module 5: Designing your Web site for your audience
5.1 Introduction to Module 5
5.2 The basics of design
5.3 Designing for your audience
5.4 Historical Web design trends
5.5 Current Web design trends
5.6 Project 5 - Apply good design
5.7 Conclusion and final exam

LENGTH: 5 weeks

EFFORT: 5-7 hours per week

LEVEL: Introductory

INSTITUTION: W3Cx