

ROSHAN'S STORY

2 of 3

*After receiving threats from government officials,
Roshan has decided to leave the country.*

Roshan approaches a kiosk labelled 'Border Control'. There is a guard inside the kiosk. Roshan has his passport in one hand..

...he looks down to the photo of his family that he is holding in his other hand.

Suddenly a bag is thrown over his head. Roshan is thrown into a van by the officials.

ROSHAN: Muffled shouts.

The van drives off into the night.

Roshan is taken straight to a court room.

The room is empty apart from Roshan, a judge and some guards. Roshan has been ruffled. His clothes are torn and scuffed from the trip. He is handcuffed with his hands in front of him.

ROSHAN: "I have a right to a Lawyer!"

JUDGE: "Quiet! You are guilty of Defamation of the Head of State and Threatening the Constitutional Order ..."

JUDGE: "... I sentence you to thirteen years of hard labour!"

Roshan looks up to the sky and mutters a prayer. He is grabbed each side by the guards ...
